That's why it continues to rattle. It's our coffee mill and while it rattes it grinds out a greater variety of coffee than is to be found in any other store in Omaha. We have 28 different kinds of the berry for you to select from and the prices are far below those at which the same goods are sold by any other house in the city. Our Imperial Java, which is sold at 3 pounds for $1.00, is the peer of any coffee ever grown. We have it roasted fresh every day right here in Omaha, and its rich flavor and delicate aroma, combined with its rare and delightful pungency, have made it the decided avorite with thousands of Omaha's connoiseurs and epicures. Coffee at 15c, 18c, 20c, 22c, 25c, 30c and 5c per pound. These same goods would run as high as 50c per bound in some TOUSES.

OUT OF SIGHT. That's the condition of the butter and gg market at present. Prices are pretty nigh but they're lower at our butter and egg department than any other place in Thousands and thousands of people know this to be so and they dso know that they can depend upon etting at this department the very ghest grade of goods to be found on he market. That's why we sell more outter and eggs than any two other iouses in Omaha.

DO YOU WASH your own clothes or any one-elses? Montay morning we will place on sale in our hardware department twenty-five dozen double wash boards the regular price of which is 35c, while they last they go at 15c.

Wyoming Republicans Express Their Choice for the National Convention. Three weeks ago the Laramie (Wyo.) Republican addressed the following self-explanatory circular to a number of the prominent republicans of this state: republicans of this state:

Laramir, Wyo., Oct. 7.—The Laramie Republican has undertaken the task of obtaining the sentiment of Wyoming republicanism in regard to having the national republican convention for issed held in the west. As no state convention of the party will be held prior to the meeting of the national committee a canvass of the members of the state central committee and other prominent republicans is the only available means of securing expression of the party's preference as to where the presidential convention should be located.

Just and equitable recognition demands that the convention be hold west of the Mississippi river. The great region containing a population exceeding over one third of the United States, and representing states that have always been loval to the national republican ticket, has never yet been honored with a national convention of the party. In state convention assembled the republicans of lowa, Nebraska and Colorado have petitioned the national committee to mane Omaha as the national committee to name Omaha as the place where the national convention should be held. If their preference meets your ap-provat please notify the Republican at your earliest convenience. All communications on the subject shall be forwarded to the secon the subject shad be forwarded to the secretary of the national committee.

Aside from its party significance, the holding of the convention at Omaha would be beneficial to the general interests of Wyoming. Awaiting your favor.

The Laramie Republican. Of the responses thus far received, says the Republican of October 28, not one is opposed to Omaha. Senator Carey's response is to Omaha. Senator Carey's response is worthy of publication in full. It is as follows: Cheyenne, Wyo., Oct. 13, 1891.—Editor of the Laramie Republican.—Dear Sir: In reply to your circular letter of October 7th. I would say from what I have seen at national conventions I am satisfied that they should not be held in the larger cities. The crowds that gather in large cities are not conducted to deliberations upon the part of the delegates. It is easy enough to manufacture applause, and to build for the time being a pressure in behalf of some particular candidate. If the matter was in my control I would locate the next convention in the west, the further west the better; but it is not wise to commit myself to any locality now, for the reason that the locality of these conventions are usually the result of comconventions are usually the result of co promise, and a committeeman should f that he is in position to do that which see that he is in position to do that which seems best for the party of which he is a member, if I should vote today, I should vote for Ornaha; but if I find it impossible to get Omaha, then I shall strive to secure the location of the convention, so far as might be in my power, in in the next best place for the republican party. Yours traily. JOSEPH M. CAREY, Congressman C. D. Clark writes: "Am in but it was an hour later before a quorum was present. Acting Mayor Thomas Lowry presented a list of names of parties to serve as judges and clerks of election. The list was accepted and the parties duly confirmed. The names were substituted for the e originally presented for the reasons that many formerly selected could not serve; had removed from the county or were candidates for office.

County Attorney Mahoney reported that the money due Oliver Davis on a grading contract should be paid to the Nebraska

Savings bank. Smith & Allen presented their bill of $15for the construction of compartments in the election booths. The bill was laid over, Mr. Berlin stating that the compartments had not been constructed according to contract. The Pokrog Zapadu Printing company asked for the payment of $1,360 as componention for printing the delinquent tax list. Th oill was referred to the committee on finance for the reason that it was $400 in excess of the one presented last year. County Auditor Evans filed a letter and several pages of figures. In the former he referred to the investigation of the sinking fund by the investigating committee of the Real Estate Owners association. He said that the statement that $12,182.70 of the fund had disappeared was an assertion that could not be established by proof. Dr. Bieney cures catarrh. Bee bldg. QUOTES THE NEW LAW ON THE SUBJECT.

SAYS THE WOMEN CAN'T VOTE.

City Attorney Poppleton's Opinion on &

Much Mooted Election Question.

City Attorney Poppleton has given an opinion to the effect that women cannot vote at the coming election, even for members of the school board. This matter has been the subject of no ittle discussion since the passage of the new Australian ballot law. Some attorneys have argued that women would be allowed to vote for members of the school board, while others have claimed that this was all changed by Chairman Mercer of the republican county central committee, a few days ago asked Hon. A. J. Poppleton, city attorney, for an opinion on this point. The following is Mr. Poppleton's reply: OMARA, Oct. 30, 1801-Mr. D. H. Mercer, hairman. Dear sir: Answering your injuly as to whether or not woman can vote in school district of Omaha, Nevember 3, 89% under the Australian ballot law. I am f the opinion that women can not vote under my circumstances on the school bond propopolitan school districts is section 20 of subdi-vision 19 of chapter 79, compiled statutes of 1801 which was passed subsequent to the Australian ballot law. This law makes no provision whatever for allowing women to vote on bond propositions and morover para-graph 12 of said section 29 which specifically confers upon woman the right to vote for members of the Board of Education, by clear implication withholds from them the light to vote or other questions. for members of the Board of Education, withut registration upon taking the oath precrited in paragraph 12 of said section 29. This paragraph 12 is distinct and complete a itself and confers a clear right and points at specifically the conditions under which it s to be exercised, namely, the taking of a ceralnoath. I do not think that paragraph is of said chapter 20 dealing with registration, in any way qualifies the rights conferred on women aw does not permit the registration of women There would be therefore a manifest incongraity in applying to them the provision of 🥆 ald paragraph I3 in regard to registration. It was remarked by members present that the benefits to be derived were so important and so far-reaching that it would be a difficult matter to answer in a small space. A sentiment in favor of making Nebraska a great manufacturing state by patronizing the manufacturers of the state in preference to those in the east has suddenly sprung into existence in Omaha, and with a ttle encouragement from the manufacturers spread all over the state. Thousands of men and women in Omaha are saying to the retail dealers, "Give us Nebraska made goods," and the dealers are compelled to handle these goods whether they wish or not. The result has been that a number of manufacturers who were a few weeks ago begging the dealers to take their goods, only to be refused, now receive unsolicited orders from these same dealers. A number of small manufacturers who had never been alide to good even a footbold, now find themselves. gain even a foothold, now find themselves suddealy placed on their feet by the unpre-cedented demand for their goods and instead of talking about giving up the fight and going out of business they are patting on re he'p and increasing their Large concerns have fett an equal improvegent in their business.
